

A SHOW OF STRENGTH FOR BRAIN CANCER

100 km Erg Challenge 2019

The team who pulls the fastest 100 km wins bragging rights and the Connor Cup. The runners up go home with the warm fuzzy feeling of supporting brain cancer matters.

What started as a 100km Erg Challenge between Wisconsin and Stanford is now expanding to the top rowing teams at Universities across the United States – all in the name pediatric brain cancer research.

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS INCLUDE:

Primary Event Sponsor: $10,000.00

(logo on: website, fundraising pages, T-shirt, banner, in communications, at event)

Heavyweight Level: $5,000.00

(logo on: all except T-shirt)

Hammer Level: $1,000.00

(logo on: website, all online fundraising pages)

Crew Level: $500.00

(logo at event)

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Anna Leach
aleach29@gmail.com
Cell: 1 414 630-1129

Fundraising recipients:

Pediatric Neuro Oncology projects at:
Lucille Packard Foundation,
Stanford University
UW Wisconsin Children's Hospital
The Robert Connor Dawes CERN Fellowship